

Mr. Morris from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, An act for incorporating the Deer Park Academy, in Baltimore county, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Hughlett from the committee on revolutionary claims to which was referred the resolution in favor of Polly Stevens, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Osborn from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act regulating joint fences in Kent county, reported favorably thereon,

It was read the second, and by special order the third time, passed, and returned to the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Wootton,

The question was put,

"Will the senate recede from the amendment heretofore adopted by the senate, to the bill entitled, an act to repeal an act passed at December session 1833, chapter 111,"

And it was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Wootton,

The said bill was re-considered, and

On the further motion of Mr. Wootton,

The following amendment was read and assented to,

Add at the end of the bill, as proposed to be amended, as follows:

"Provided, that nothing in this act, shall be construed to extend to the apprehending of any servants or slaves taken up within the limits of the District of Columbia."

The bill was then passed and returned to the house of delegates,

The senate proceeded to consider the bill, entitled, An act to extend the charters of several banks in the city of Baltimore,

On motion of Mr. Osborn,

The following amendment offered yesterday, by Mr. Sappington, was re-considered.

Strike out 5th section, and insert in lieu thereof,

"And be it enacted, That if any of said corporations shall by or in any proceeding whatsoever, at law or in equity, attempt to call in question or to dispute, or to procure to be so called in question or disputed, the validity in any respect, or to any extent of any act that have been, or may be passed, either during the present session, or during